

Critical Mass

Critical Mass is a band that exists in the grey area between genres. A craft once, very tellingly, called 'fusion'. And that is exactly what this band is all about. Fusing and splitting influences, ideas and moods. Trying to dispose of some of the ancient dogmas that is so deeply rooted in the rock scene.

Critical Mass consists of six musicians who are as playful as they are experienced. Between them they have countless bands and projects under their belt. This obscene mixture of personalities and musicalities makes for a complex and uncompromising sound scape that stands out in the crowd of metal and rock band in Denmark.

The band has existed in its current form for about a year. Recently, Critical Mass completed their first EP, the four song 'Wasted Sentence'. The band produced the EP themselves but wisely turned to Tue Madsen of Antfarm Studios for the mixing and mastering.
